COMMODORE'S CORNER

Greetings members,

The Ngawi / Pukemanu Challenge has been fished, with Ngawi winning by a very close margin.....(unfortunately, Don Hohepa Finayson was entered by the Ngawi club as a Ngawi member.....(very cunning these Ngawegians!!),,, After a re-add of points, they still beat us, but only by the proverbial "gnats c..k"!!!.....we will be watching closely next time!.....At the end of the day, our club had an awesome turnout, thank you to all the teams that fished, a great effort....(it was good to see a few of the Ngawi committee get nervous when all the Puke boats started arriving in the Bay!!)....on a personal note, the "Waka" had one of those can't catch a fish days & to top it all off, the Beach trailer let go at the top of the launch ramp!...thank you to all the guys who helped us get the trailer out of the way & back on the section.....Pete Kennedy also had a similar day, with a few issues, hopefully, you'll have "TK" ready for this weekend Pete?

Pukemanu Open is this weekend!!.....there is a lot of work to get this Competition up & running & I would like to thank my Committee for all the effort so far.....hopefully we will see another good turnout of our members & other clubs for this great fishing & socialising weekend.....The prizes are awesome, not just from our major Sponsor, Wairarapa Hunting & Fishing, but all the section Sponsors as well.....the number of donated Spot Prizes always impresses me, & this year will be no different...so even if you are'nt in the major prizes, I'm sure you won't go home empty handed.....There will be a "Silent Auction" for a number of great items on Friday evening's Registration in the Marquee.....check out what's on offer & place your bid.....auction results will be released at Saturdays prize giving.....Weatherwise, it looks reasonable for the weekend, however we all know our coast & what can happen, so let's hope it all works out for us?

I look forward to see you at the Puke Marquee on Friday evening, 5.30 to 7.30
Registration!

Mark Wiremu Telford

Three old timers at the retirement home were complaining about growing old. The first one says, "I wake up at 7:00 AM and try for a half hour to take a poop." The second one says, "Oh yeah? I spend an hour trying to pee." The third one says, "I take a nice poop at 7:00 AM and about 7:30 AM take a nice pee." The other two guys look at him and ask, "What are you complaining about?" The third man explains, "I don't wake up till 8:30 AM."

The Best Ever Crumbed Fish!

Ingredients:

Skinned and boned fish fillets (Blue Cod of course here, but use what you have)
Breadcrumbs (bought fine crumbs are perfectly adequate)
Flour and/or Secret Seasoned Flour Mix
Eggs
Olive Oil

Method:

If you are using the secret flour mix, mix half and half with plain flour.
Whisk eggs with a dash of olive oil.
Put fish through flour, then eggs, then breadcrumbs.

(Whiskey is optional)

Fry in olive oil or butter until golden and just cooked through.
Serve with tartare sauce, lemon wedges and homemade chips.

The olive oil in with the eggs gives your fish a beautiful crisp crumb. If you want a bit of extra seasoning with your fish make up a batch of this seasoned flour.

2 cups flour
1 tsp each of salt, dried thyme, dried basil, ground ginger, mace, and dried oregano.
1 tbsp each of celery salt, black pepper, dry mustard
4 tbsp paprika
2 tsp garlic granules

Mix well and store in an airtight container until needed.
If you do use it for chicken, you need to dip the chicken in egg, then breadcrumbs, then the seasoned flour mix.

PUKEMANU-NGAWI CHALLENGE

As commodore Mark mentioned this took place on the 10th October and there was a good turn out from our club. Unfortunately we were once again pipped at the post by the Ngawi team.

Prize giving was held in the Fire Station afterwards with Vice Commodore Gary stepping up to assist Commodore Mark with the prize giving as Mark was suffering with the Flu and could hardly talk. Thanks to Liz for arranging the food, and to those committee members that helped serve it on the tables, and cleaning up afterwards. An enjoyable evening was had between the two clubs.

Ngawi scored 82.7816

Puke scored 82.0976

There is a list of anglers and results further on. Not sure why our Secretary is listed as having competed under the Ngawi club, is this a conspiracy? Or FISH GATE!!!!

A cowboy goes down to the stable, lifts his horse's tail, and plants a kiss smack dab on the horses butthole.

Another cowboy sees this and yells, "What the hell are you doing?"

He replies, "I've got chapped lips."

The other cowboy asks, "Does that help?" "Nope," he answers, "It just keeps me from licking them."

OH DEAR.

Let me introduce you to Wirimus Wobbly Waka.

Yes Commodore Mark had a weekend to forget about. Along with suffering the flu, he had a bit of misfortune while retrieving the Waka at the end of the days fishing. His tyre collapsed on his boat trailer causing a bit of a wobble. A bit of work to be done before our Open Weekend.

Next to suffer a bit of misfortune were the Kennedy boys. PK & JK along with their crew had to abandon the fishing due to oil problems on their boat TK, and returned back to the bay. It was a pity that all the boats were out as they gave a good lesson on how not to put a boat back on the trailer. It came in on a bit of a swell causing it to land just about sideways and crashed under their trailer cradle at the front. They had to then free it and have another go. I think they finally managed to get it off the water!!!!

Another "O Dear".

The Saturday of the Challenge it seems David Dye on Dinky had a bit of a mishap, he did the old wrap the anchor rope around the prop trick, and had to cut himself free.

After this weekend competition we could have record numbers lining up for that prestigious trophy awarded at the AGM!!

Bluenose

Found

Bluenose are generally in water depths over 250m plus. Found on low lying foul and deep reef structures. It is often said that when you find good bluenose schools you will also find a good broadbill fishing ground as the broadies love them. They are another of our great table fish and fresh bluenose fillets are to die for.....

Knots and Rigs for Bluenose

A two hook ledger rig with a size 14/0 circle hook is the best rig. The rig is the same as used for Hapuku and Bass. It pays to attach a break away leader to the sinker (lighter than the main trace line) – this will save losing all your gear if fouling up in the bottom or being reefed by a monster.

Fishing with braid is almost a must now; it allows you to feel the bite in the much deeper water (sometimes 200m plus). Even though you do not strike the fish (as the preferred rigs are generally made using circle hooks) it does allow you to keep in good contact with your bait.

When the bite does occur the rod tip will generally start bouncing. The trick here is to wind as fast as you can, this will role the hook into the side of the mouth of the fish - then hold on.

A light stick attached between the rigs will also help attract the fish in these depths.

Feeding habits

Bluenose have extremely large eyes to see prey in the dark depths of their normal habitat. They love to feed on squid, the large eyes helping them see these fast moving prey.

This could also be part of the reason why broadies like to hang around bluenose schools, as squid is also a favourite food of the broadbill.

Bigger broadies love bluenose as well, proven by the fact that they are often found in the stomach contents of broadbill.

Is he thinking I need a bigger Boat!!!!

Sinkerlock sinker clips

SinkerLock utilises a heavy-duty stainless spring to grip the sinker so it can't come loose and swing around dangerously when your boat is underway. When it is time to start fishing again, simply remove the sinker from where it is lodged in the tapered tail and unclip the SinkerLock from your foregrip. Available in tackle stores or from www.sinkerlock.com.

A woman goes to her boyfriend's parents' house for dinner. This is her first time meeting the family and she is very nervous. They all sit down and begin eating a fine meal. The woman is beginning to feel a little discomfort, thanks to her nervousness and the broccoli casserole. The gas pains are almost making her eyes water. Left with no other choice, she decides to relieve herself a bit and lets out a dainty little fart. It wasn't loud, but everyone at the table heard the poot.

Before she even had a chance to be embarrassed, her boyfriend's father looked over at the dog that had been snoozing at the women's feet, and said in a rather stern voice, "Ginger!"

The woman thought, "This is great!" and a big smile came across her face. A couple minutes later, she was beginning to feel the pain again. This time, she didn't hesitate. She let a much louder and longer fart rip.

The father again looked at the dog and yelled, "Dammit, Ginger!" Once again the woman smiled and thought, "Yes!" A few minutes later the woman had to let another one rip. This time she didn't even think about it. She let rip a fart that rivaled a train whistle blowing.

Again, the father looked at the dog with disgust and yelled, "Dammit, Ginger, get away from her before she shits on you!"
